

LOCAL BREVITIES.

1891.
A happy new year.
Some of the retiring officials are wearing crepe.
The newly-elected officials will be installed tomorrow.
The Board of Supervisors adjourned sine die yesterday.
The banks will close today; merchants will keep open until noon.
The District Court adjourned yesterday until Monday, January 5.
Wilson & Wilson will open a fruit and second-hand store in the Fry building on Washington street.
A pleasant whist party was given last evening at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Budge, on East Washington street.
An important business meeting of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church is called for Saturday, January 3, at 2 p. m.
The Pioneer Band celebrated the arrival of the new year by a number of serenades, in which THE REPUBLICAN was remembered.
The year 1891 came in at the customary time last night, and was greeted by a long-continued fusillade of pistol shots and the explosion of bombs.
Bernardo Figaroa filed suit for divorce against Florenzo Figaroa, and Margaret Lopez Acuna entered suit against the Phoenix Mining Company in the District Court yesterday.
Justice Goodin has established his office in the adobe building opposite THE REPUBLICAN office. Justice Hoson will occupy the quarters vacated by Judge Sherman.
The comedy, "Delectable Skule," will be presented at Patton's opera house, Friday evening, January 2. Tickets for 50 and 75 cents can be secured at Prowell's drug store.
The party to have been given by the Montezuma Club Saturday evening has been postponed to Wednesday following on account of the engagement of the opera house by Johnson's minstrels.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Loman died Tuesday night at the residence of Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Loman's mother. The parents are bereaved while on a visit to their mother from their home in Casa Grande.
Judge Kibbey yesterday sentenced Alonzo Salazar to six months imprisonment at Yuma. Salazar was indicted for selling liquor to Indians at Florence. Soriano Sanchez was sentenced to serve fifteen days in the county jail for sending obscene matter through the mail.
Late last evening Under Sheriff Boyd and Deputy Widmer arrested a Chinaman who had beaten a street hoodlum for throwing mud on clothes hanging on his line. The Chinaman demonstratively protested that he was a victim of imposition from all hands while being taken to jail.
By the telegrams this morning it will be seen that old Mike Wurch, so well known as the fat, jolly brewer of early days, was drowned yesterday from the deck of an Ensenada steamer. He was a native of Germany, perhaps 60 years of age. He came to Arizona about twelve years ago and resided in Phoenix until lately.

The report copied some time ago from the Tombstone Prospector, to the effect that Erba Robeson, the singer, well known in Arizona, was dead, is reported as a mistake by a friend of Miss Robeson, who has just received a letter from her. She is not, however, Miss Robeson, her name having been changed to Mrs. E. J. Carpenter.

CONROY-KELLY.

Another Wedding of More Than Usual Interest.
Mr. D. P. Conroy and Miss Addie Kelly were married last evening at the residence of the bride's parents on the corner of Monroe and Center streets.
Both parties are well known. Mr. Conroy having served as Passenger Agent of the Maricopa and Phoenix Railroad at Phoenix for several years. Miss Kelly is the daughter of J. B. Kelly, who has long been one of Maricopa County's most substantial citizens. The bride is the twin sister of Mrs. G. V. H. Shaver and both have been prominently identified as teachers with the public schools of the district. They are both amiable and charming ladies.
The ceremony was performed by Judge Kibbey in an impressive manner after which the few guests were served a delightful evening repast.
The bride and groom were the recipients of many compliments, among them being some beautiful bouquets of roses, sent by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Maaten and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Porter.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. H. Shaver, Judge Kibbey, J. J. Sweeney, Judge Frank Baxter, F. J. Peck and Dr. L. Stern.
After the ceremony the happy couple, together with Mr. and Mrs. Shaver, repaired to their future residence on the corner of Jackson and Cortez streets.

WEBSTER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA
AND WORLD'S ATLAS

IT AFFORDS US PLEASURE TO ANNOUNCE TO THE PEOPLE THAT we are about to give them a great benefit. Notwithstanding we have always been known as the most enterprising merchants in this section, and that we have sold the best goods in nearly every case lower than others, we believe it is right to do the best we can by our patrons, thereby securing not only the largest amount of trade but also the greatest number of friends.
We want everybody to understand that we are not trying to see how few goods we can give for a dollar, but how many.
We will issue a commutation CARD to you, and as cash purchases are made at our store the card will be punched, and when purchases to the amount called for by the card have been made, we will give you $6.00 in the form of this magnificent book, entitled
- - "Webster's Encyclopedia of Useful Information and World's Atlas," - -
A brief description of which can be found on the back of the card.
We cannot, in such limited space, give a complete description of the book, for it must be seen to be appreciated. Suffice it to say that such an offer has never before been made in this community. The book measures 10x12 1/2 inches, is 5 1/2 inches thick and occupies a space of 312 cubic inches—being Royal Octavo in size, containing 666 pages, 188 fine illustrations and 50 finely-engraved Maps, all prepared expressly for this book. It is printed from large new type, on good paper, and is handsomely and durably bound in Morocco Cloth.
Every volume is worth $2.00 to any person, or any family, and is really a household necessity. Notwithstanding the fact that we have the reputation of selling goods cheaper than anyone else, or prices will still be as low, if not lower than ever before. We will be amply repaid for the great expense we will have by selling to our regular customers, and of enjoying the trade of scores of new ones.
In order to get the right to distribute these valuable books, we were obliged to order enough to supply one to every family for miles around. Visit us at once, examine our stock and prices as we have become convinced you can do better with us than where you are trading now, if not buying your goods at our store.

IS THIS YOUR SON, MY LORD?
A REALISTIC NOVEL OF TODAY, BY HELEN M. GARDENER,
Author of "A THOUGHTLESS YES," "MEN, WOMEN AND GODS," "SEX IN BRAINS," etc., etc.
With full-page Portrait of the Author, from recent Photograph by Sarony.

THIS NOVEL is without question the most radical and, in many respects, the boldest assault on the respectable conventionalities and immorality in high places that has ever been written.
AS A NOVEL it is brilliant, absorbing, and at times highly dramatic. The reader's interest is held from the opening line to the last word of the book, and, while crying evils and vital problems are brought before the reader in a vivid and realistic manner—there is not a stilted utterance from cover to cover; nor does the reader's interest flag, owing to tedious moralizing. The terrible truths are so vividly pictured that they will, in themselves, suggest to every thoughtful mind the urgent need of positive measures to elevate the standard of morals.
AS AN EXPOSÉ of the injustice which is meted out to woman by society, and as a revelation of the shame and evils which today pass almost unchallenged under the cloak of respectability, this story stands unrivalled. It is the earnest plea of a brave and noble-hearted woman for the triumph of a higher standard of morality and the abolition of hypocrisy, cant, and dishonesty in thought as well as in action.
THE HARVARD CAST SET are mercilessly handled by the author, a piece of pen picture which will anything but please the Fred Harmons of fair Harvard.
